

Mediterranean Migration Network Newsletter

January 2019

Editorial

Dear colleagues,

The Mediterranean Migration Network (MMN) completes yet another action-packed year, marked with a series of activities, trainings, projects and initiatives in the fields of migration and integration. Our hope is that our work and our capacity as a collaborative platform and a focal point for stakeholders and practitioners across the EU have paved the way towards a meaningful exchange of knowledge and good practices as well as new synergies and joint action. Most importantly, we hope that the MMN has actively contributed to your work, activities and efforts to support and empower migrants as well as address integration challenges they may be facing.

The Mediterranean Migration Network, is an online platform coordinated by the international Research Centre CARDET, and the SME INNOVADE and continues its activities and actions towards providing support to stakeholders who are called to delegate migration and integration issues daily.

The Mediterranean Migration Network (MMN) develops within the framework of "Integration Network" (CY/2018/AMIF/SO2.NO3.3.1/2), which is co-funded by the Asylum, Migration and Integration Fund (90%) and the Republic of Cyprus (10%).

MMN workshops

The Centre for the Advancement of Research and Development in Educational Technology (CARDET) in collaboration with INNOVADE LI, over the past year, have successfully implemented 9 interactive workshops. The workshops covered a rich array of issues coalesced around the following major topics:

- Stakeholder involvement
- Stakeholder empowerment
- Differentiation of migrants who are classified as “refugees” or “asylum seekers” and Third Country Nationals
- Migrants’, refugees’, asylum seekers’ and Third Country Nationals’ rights and obligations
- Good practices applied in other EU member states
- Local action to support the integration and social inclusion of migrants into the host country

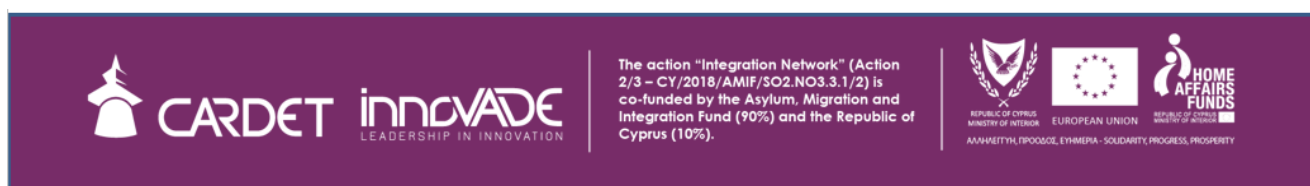

All the relevant information about the workshops implemented within the framework of the Mediterranean Migration Network can be found here. You can also contact us at info@migrationnetwork.org.

Two new MMN courses are now available online

MMN is pleased to inform you that two more new courses are now online through the MMN platform. Online learning offers a new way to explore subjects you’re passionate about. Find your interests by browsing our online courses here.

Publication of the 4th Mediterranean Migration Booklet

The Mediterranean Migration Network is pleased to announce the launch of the 4th Mediterranean Migration Booklet. The MMN, through this booklet has collected a selection of good practices from across the EU, featuring a collection of case studies, testimonials and collaborative programs. The MMN Booklet seeks to become a handy tool for organizations, researchers and stakeholders who are interested and/or are engaged in the fields of migration and integration.
